The Court's Order of December 22, 2005 Re: Setting Deadlines Following December 8 2005 Case Management Conference, required that the Office of the City Attorney review and assess the retaliation claims reviewed by the IMT during its November 2005 audit of Task 37 of the settlement

1 agreement and file a report of its findings and any proposed remedial actions by March 1, 2006. The
 2 Office of the City Attorney respectfully requests a one-week extension to March 8, 2006 to file its 3 report. Plaintiffs' counsel James B. Chanin does not oppose the extension. IMT Kelli Evans on 4 behalf of the IMT does not oppose the extension. Good cause for the extension exists in that Ms.
 5 Vicki Laden Esq. of the City Attorney's Office has been representing the City in a week long
 6 arbitration regarding the closing of the Oakland City Jail and has been working closely with the IMT
 7 and outside counsel on the independent investigation of certain matters relating to OPD's IAD which
 8 are also the concern of this Court. Ms. Laden has stated to Mr. Fox that the extension will allow her
 9 to complete her report as required by the Court by March 8, 2006.
 10

11 This is the first extension requested by the City relating to the December 22, 2006 Order. All
 12 other deadlines have been completed on time as required by the Court.
 13

14 Respectfully submitted.
